We respect you, and you’ll feel that respect in how we treat you throughout the resolution process.

Serious sanctions are imposed for findings of misconduct.

A wide range of interim measures are available to protect you, upon request.

You can have any non-witness support person of your choosing to accompany you throughout the process.

The College’s process is compliant with federal and state law.

All Title IX administrators are comprehensively trained and certified in Title IX compliance.

Our office maintains your report with confidentiality.

It uses the preponderance of evidence standard (whether a policy violation is more likely than not).

It’s fair to all parties.

It’s prompt, often completed within 60 days.