

The Department of Religion and the Program in Jewish Studies present

The Frederick C. Wood Lecture

Arab Labor: An Evening with Sayed Kashua

Monday
March 31, 2014
5:30-7:30pm
Rockefeller Hall 300

Sayed Kashua

is a Palestinian-Israeli writer and novelist, and the creator of the hit Israeli TV series “Arab Labor” (Avoda Aravit), now in its third season. With razor-sharp wit, irony, and humor, Kashua offers a fresh and poignant perspective on the experience of Palestinians living in Israel, caught between two worlds.

A talk by the author will follow the screening of one episode from “Arab Labor.”

Sponsors:

Africana Studies, Anthropology, Film, History, International Studies,
Media Studies, and Political Science

Individuals with disabilities requiring accommodations or information on accessibility should contact the Campus Activities Office, (845) 437-5370. Without sufficient notice, appropriate space and /or assistance may not be available.