Walking Tour of the Vassar College Arboretum
Enjoy a leisurely walk, discover fascinating fun facts about trees, and learn about the increasing importance of campus trees for our efforts to be more sustainable and achieve carbon neutrality. Our itinerary will include visits to the reuniting classes’ class trees. Please wear comfortable walking shoes and dress for the weather. Led by Professor of Biology and Arboretum Committee Co-Chair Mark Schlessman.

Meet at the entrance to Main in front of Main Circle.

Tell us about your class tree! Do you remember dedicating it? Has it played a role in your reunions? The Class Tree Oral History Project would love to hear from you. Please email Biology Professor Mark Schlessman:
