Physical Distancing:
- Maintain 6 ft distance everywhere indoors and outdoors.
- Roommates in doubles, triples, suites, and apartments are encouraged to maintain 6 ft distance as possible.

Campus Access:
- Campus closed to non-essential visitors.
- Limited visitor access; no building access. Brief ‘drive-through’ tours of the campus will now be permitted (without exiting the vehicle).

Dining:
- Grab-n-Go dining only.
- Limited outdoor seating, seats marked for distancing.

Public Facilities:
- Temporary closures (Athletic Fitness Center, academic lounges, house parlors, MPRs, community centers, etc.).
- Classrooms spaced for physical distance.

Programming:
- No In-Person/Outdoor Programming (virtual/passive programming only).

Outdoor Gatherings:
- Any informal gatherings are virtual or outside only.
- Masks and 6 ft distance required.

Indoor Gatherings:
- Indoor gatherings permitted with Reduced Maximum Capacities.
- Masks and 6 ft distance required.

Exercise:
- Outdoor exercise/recreation with 6 ft physical distancing.

Testing:
- Pre-arrival test; 1st on-campus test upon arrival; 2nd on-campus test 7-10 days after arrival.

The Following Standards Must be Adhered to Throughout All Phases:

- Everyone on campus is required to wear a mask/face covering at all times (including in transit and in residential houses).*
- Students will only be able to access their own residence.
- Students will use assigned bathrooms and fixtures in houses.
- No registered parties
- Classrooms are spaced for physical distance.
- Food & grocery delivery drivers may not enter the building. Students must meet driver outside; touchless delivery.

* Mask Exceptions:
  - when in private/unshared rooms or offices; when stationary outdoors and able to maintain 6 ft distance from others; or if exercising (must be in a group of 4 or fewer) and able to maintain 6 ft distance from others.
